Teachers/Researchers

(For use by teachers/researchers from India who are claiming Tax Treaty exemption.)

1. I was a resident of India on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.
2. I am visiting the United States for the purpose of teaching or conducting research at The University of Michigan. I will receive compensation for my teaching or research activities.
3. The teaching or research compensation received during the entire tax year (or during the period from _____ to _____) for these activities qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the tax treaty between the United States and India.
4. Any research I perform will be undertaken in the public interest and not primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.
5. I arrived in the United States on _____. The treaty exemption is available only for compensation paid during a period of two years beginning on that date. If your visit to the United States exceeds two years, the tax treaty exemption is lost retroactively. You will be responsible for paying taxes on all income received during the previous two years.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that the above statements are true, correct, and complete.
